

It's Your Money

POLICE SETTLING MONEY DISPUTE

(By Associated Press)
MIAMI, Fla. April 17—One dollar bill looks just about like another—a fact which has police in something of a stew.
You see, police have $10,000. It's up to them and the courts to decide whose money it is.
Stephen S. Enoff, 53-year-old laborer of Mansfield, O., says he won it betting on the dogs.
Mrs. Julia Grech of New York City said the money was her janitor-husband's life savings. She said she gave it and a money belt to Enoff to hold while she went swimming March 28.
She said that when she returned the man to whom she entrusted the money had disappeared.
Detectives Frank Love and R. B. Simpson arrested a man whom Mrs. Grech said had taken the money. He was picked up in Miami. Detective Supt. Charles W. Pierce identified him as Enoff. He quoted the Chicago as saying:
"I take it's hers, let her prove it. I won it at the dog races."
Enoff was booked for investigation and vagrancy and will be tried in city court Monday.
Pierce said detectives found money in various safety deposit boxes and bank accounts in Miami, $1,004 on Enoff. They also seized a 1939 automobile Enoff said he had bought recently.
Mrs. Grech said she kept her money in a belt because she "doesn't trust banks," Pierce told news-men.

(Paid Advertisement)

One of a series of advertisements about the way Mullins Manufacturing Corporation and its employees work together for a better future for all . . .

What do you think about PROFIT?

Is there anything wrong about a business making a profit?

Some persons are trying to make us believe that a company which makes a profit is doing wrong. In order to gain personal ends—or to advance some other way of living—they shout about "tremendous" corporation profits. Isn't it strange that they never mention any of the benefits we Americans receive from our "profit" system. We certainly all profit from it.

If a company serves the public well it may make a profit. If it doesn't it certainly will suffer a loss. This harsh fact is the reason why American employees earn more money—why we Americans produce more and thus have more to share.

How employees profit under the profit system

Forty years ago the average American worked ten hours a day for $2. Employers made a profit. Even then there were people who said that profit was wrong. But businesses kept on putting a big part of the profit back into the businesses in the form of better machines and better equipment. These helped the employee to earn more because he was able to produce more. Today wages are in the neighborhood of $9-$10 for an eight hour day. We Americans are able to buy more goods with the money we get for our time and work. This could never have happened if ALL the earnings of business had been paid out—either as wages to employees or as dividends to shareholders.

What some people object to in the profit system

Arguments against profit seem to boil down to two main objections: (1) "There are depressions under the profit system." This is true, and it is tragic. But all other methods of business have depressions, too, and no one works harder to avoid a depression than the man who is looking for a profit, because profit is the first thing to go when hard times hit. Even so, at the bottom of the last depression we Americans were living better than the average Englishman or Russian does in normal times . . . The second objection is this: "There are wealthy people under the profit system." Yes, but there are some people who have more than others under any system. It is only in America that every one has equal opportunity to become wealthy.

Just how high are corporation profits?

Propagandists and politicians have a field day yelling about "tremendous" profits. Nineteen forty-seven was a good year for profits, but the Mullins story, typical of American industry in general, doesn't indicate anything that could be called "tremendous." Mullins shareholders received 2 1/2¢ out of every dollar the company received, but more than 3 1/2¢ out of every dollar of income was put back into the business in the form of better production tools and equipment. Meanwhile employees were receiving 28.9¢ out of every dollar. And it must not be forgotten that there were many years when Mullins made little or no profit.

ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Profits pay for modern machines which can produce more.
2. Mass production on heavy equipment reduces costs to customer.
3. These new presses cost $135,000, were paid for from earnings.
4. Assembly line methods raise production and employee earnings.

What all of us want—employees, management, and investors alike—is prosperity. This goal can be reached only by working together. Every employee has a direct and personal interest in seeing that his company makes a profit—for only by making a profit can a company continue to provide the better machines that help workers produce more and earn more. Profit is good job insurance.

SOCIAL NOTES

350 Attend Party At School

Some 350 Salem High School association members danced to the tune of Chuck Wurster's band at the annual party Friday evening in the High school gym.

Under a "blue sky" ceiling, from which hung red and white streamers, the dance floor was decorated to simulate the deck of a ship, with anchors and other nautical symbols. Jerry Rice was master of ceremonies at the intermission program and introduced Ruth Winkler, who played two piano solos, "Sunrise Serenade" and "Tico-Tico." Bob Tarzan, Ben Bailey, Dick Dougherty and Bob Zimmerman made up the quartet which sang "Working on the Railroad" and "Down by the Riverside."

Mrs. Helen Mulbach was chairman of the faculty advisors committee; Alton Allen and Troy Penner had charge of the tickets; Mrs. George Ryser and G. Swanger, refreshments; John Paul Ollman, decoration; Mrs. Beryl Tarr, entertainment. Student committees assisted.

Tom Miner won the door prize. Roy Baxter, who was discharged from City hospital, is convalescing at the Metzger hotel.

Mrs. Robert Dixon returned Friday from a trip to Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Johnson, who has a wide experience in landscape gardening, is a lecturer of both platform and radio.

An exhibit of flower arrangements made by members of Garden Club of Ohio will be featured. Each club is asked for two arrangements, for which an exhibitor's ribbon will be given.

Mrs. A. S. Martin of Lakewood, state president, is scheduled to attend.

Registration at 10:30 a. m. will be followed by a round table discussion at 11. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 and the address will be at 2 p. m.

Reservations are to be made with Mrs. W. Earl Rogers, Home circle, before Wednesday.

Mullins Booster Club Dinner Party Enjoyed

Spring flowers graced the table and small umbrellas in pastel shades marked each place at a dinner enjoyed by members of the Mullins Booster club Thursday evening at the Valley Golf club.

Miss Janet Flanagan, Mrs. Richard Green, Miss Phebe Anderson and Miss Mary Lou Antonio, new members, were introduced.

Farewell gifts were presented Mrs. John Batcha and Mrs. J. McKibbin. Plans were completed for the club's annual benefit dance Saturday evening, June 12, at the Salem Golf club. Miss Marilyn Flick is general chairman.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Elizabeth Fox and Miss Audrey Knopp. The committee which arranged the party was composed of Miss Martha Hippy, chairman; Miss Barbara Gray, Miss Jean Gabriel and Miss Emmett Harrison.

The next meeting is May 20.

Recent Bride Honored At Shower Party

Mrs. Harold N. Wolf of Damascus entertained at her home at a gift shower, Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. Ross Wagner of Alliance, formerly Miss Barbara Geiger of Damascus.

Twelve guests were present from Alliance, Salem and Damascus. Spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the house.

Monte Carlo Whist was played, with honors won by Mrs. Bert Hendricks and Mrs. G. H. McDonald.

A two-course lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert McDonald.

Favors which served also as place cards were a miniature boy and girl labeled "A Swell Pair."

Talk On Missions Heard By Circle

Mrs. Willis Miller gave a talk relating to missions in South America when she was guest speaker at a meeting of the Elsie Matti Missionary circle of the First Friends church Thursday evening.

Mrs. Don Rohrer, vice president, was in charge of the business session. The members planned a China mission project.

Mrs. Rohrer and Mrs. Kenneth Howells served refreshments.

Cornet Club Meets At Konnerth Home

Cornet club associates were guests of Mrs. Edward Konnerth Thursday evening at her home, Newgarden st.

Mrs. Martin Polder, Jr. and Mrs. Simon Wagner shared honors in the "300" games. The traveling prize was awarded Mrs. Joseph Gross.

Lunch was served. The April 29 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Andrew Klein, Newgarden st.

NEW RESEARCH CENTER USES EGGS IN FIGHT ON CANCER

Technician opening egg to check growth of cancer tissue. Upper right: Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research.

NEW YORK—Technicians in the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research grow cancers on chick embryos in the eggs. This is part of the systematic procedure used in the search for a chemical compound which will poison abnormal cells without harming normal cells.

The 14-story laboratory has just been dedicated. Its completion gives this country an advance post in the war against the dread disease, making possible the intensive development of certain promising avenues of cancer research. The Sloan-Kettering Institute, a division of Memorial Hospital, the pioneer in cancer research, is part of a cancer center of national importance which includes the Strang Prevention Clinic and the James Ewing Hospital now being built by New York City.

The Institute was built with funds from a $4,562,500 grant by Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., the industrial leader, which also provides half the operating expenses for ten years. Contributions from all parts of the country, from the American Cancer Society and from the Public Health Service have made possible many research programs. Associated with Mr. Sloan in enlarging the research attack on cancer is Charles F. Kettering, inventor and research wizard.

Miss Thornberry Thursday Bride

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Ruth Thornberry of N. Ellsworth ave. and Herbert Blis of Cherry Tree, Pa., which was solemnized at 4:30 p. m. Thursday by Rev. Paul Gerard of Lisbon, who read the double ring ceremony.

Unattended, the bride was attired in a tulle gown with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The wedding dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Margaret McAvoy of East Liverpool, aunt of the bride.

A graduate of the Alliance City hospital nurses training school, Mrs. Blis has been employed at the Central Clinic for three years.

Mr. Blis is a World War II veteran of three years' service, six months of which was spent in France. The couple will reside near Alliance.

Mrs. Blis was honored at a dinner party this week in Alliance given by nurses employed on the first floor at the Clinic. She was presented a beautiful gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carpenter have returned from a honeymoon trip to Chicago. She is the former Nancy Coccia.

Mrs. Myrtle Lutz of E. Fourth st. and Mrs. Laura Kennedy of Ohio ave. spent Friday with Cleveland friends.

Phillips Church Class Officers Elected

Officers for the ensuing year were named at a meeting of the Loyal Sons and Daughters class of Phillips Christian church, taught by Mrs. Ralph Huston, Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tyrus Swartz, Teggarden rd. They are: President, Tyrus Swartz; vice president, James Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Charles Vincent; treasurer, Randall Black.

Mrs. Black conducted devotions. Refreshments were served after a period of games in charge of Mrs. Vincent.

Twenty-six members and guests attended. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Franklin st., will be hosts at the next meeting the date of which has not been set.

Mrs. R. W. Pollock of the Beechwood rd. is a surgical patient in the Central Clinic.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT

If you want to be a welcome guest in the home of a son-in-law, DON'T:

Tell your daughter in front of her husband how successful the men she didn't marry has turned out to be.

Tell your son-in-law you think your daughter is working entirely too hard.

Make your daughter dissatisfied with the kind of life she is leading. Jump to your daughter's defense if her husband criticizes something she does.

Encourage your daughter to go down town and spend more money than she can afford on clothes simply because you always saw to it that she had everything she wanted when she was at home.

Buy your daughter something expensive that her husband has been promising to buy her as soon as he can manage.

Show your disapproval when your grandchildren are disciplined by their father.

Boss your daughter around the way you did when she was under your own roof.

Gossip constantly with your daughter about people and things in which your son-in-law has no interest, leaving him feeling that there are just too many women around the house.

Wonder about the soundness of your son-in-law's business judgment.

Jimmy Roosevelt's Wife
Ill After Pill Mistake

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 17.—Taking the wrong pills from a bedside box in the early morning darkness sent Mrs. James Roosevelt to a hospital today for treatment for an overdose of sleeping pills, her physician reported.

Her condition was described as "good" several hours later.

Dr. Blake Watson, family doctor for the wife of the late President's eldest son, gave this account:

He said Mrs. Roosevelt, 32, awoke about 5 a. m. with a cold and a headache, reached for a box of pills on a bedside stand which she thought were headache tablets. Instead, she swallowed several sleeping pills. She quickly awakened her husband, who called police. She was rushed to emergency hospital, then to St. John's hospital in nearby Santa Monica.

Roosevelt, state Democratic chairman, was with her at the hospital but could not be reached for comment.

Second Guessing

By DON E. BEATTIE
News Sports Editor

The tedious task of organizing the Class A (and maybe Class AA) leagues in Salem softball is again under way. It's the same old story every year about this time, but fortunately the managers and other interested parties seem to have found a feasible method of getting out of the usual dilemma.

Joe Kelley, affable league manager, held his first organizational session Thursday. Thirteen rabid managers were present, plus a flock of interested players from the various teams.

The pow-wow ended with the encouraging result that a three-man board was agreed on to set down the league regulations, restrictions and operational plans for the new year.

This automatically eliminates several evenings and endless hours of needless bickering by managers, who for the most part are more concerned with advancing their own team's viewpoints than in establishing an all-around workable league.

Kelley's choice of Ray Reasbeck, Jim Primm and Commissioner Joe Reese as the trio to do the hard work is commendable. He couldn't have found three more fully qualified men in local softball. All three know the ins and outs, the good and bad features and the obstacles which are facing, and have faced Salem's leagues for more than 20 years.

With another heavy entry of would-be Class A teams certain, the idea has been advanced from some quarters of establishing an A and AA loop, the teams being placed in each according to their relative player strength.

Whether this develops remains to be seen. Many observers and managers are bitterly opposed to such action. They have sound reasons to back their contentions, just as the advocates are blessed with a host of reasonable thoughts on their angle.

The real point to be borne foremost in the minds of all concerned is that Salem's softball program, so earnestly promoted each year by Joe Kelley, is completely valueless to the community unless it fills its most vital role. That role is to provide entertainment, exercise and interesting competition to the group of players who would otherwise not participate in such a program.

The leagues are not geared (or shouldn't be) to fill the needs of the natural ball players, the young and active athletes who would get in it, league or no league. When that thought slips out of league consideration, the basic purpose in operation is lost.

There are many other angles to be allowed for also. The players, of course, must enjoy themselves and must have some incentive to stick it out. That is brought about mainly through evenly divided, interesting competition.

Powerhouses in a league do far more harm to the league and the program as a whole than eight or 10 "just mediocre" teams battling for a title.

Then there's the often-forgotten spectator. Salem's softball, whether the moguls appreciate it or not, provides—or can provide—hours of fine enjoyment for those non-participating folks who sit back and watch. If the operation isn't partially geared to their needs, it also lacks its proper balance.

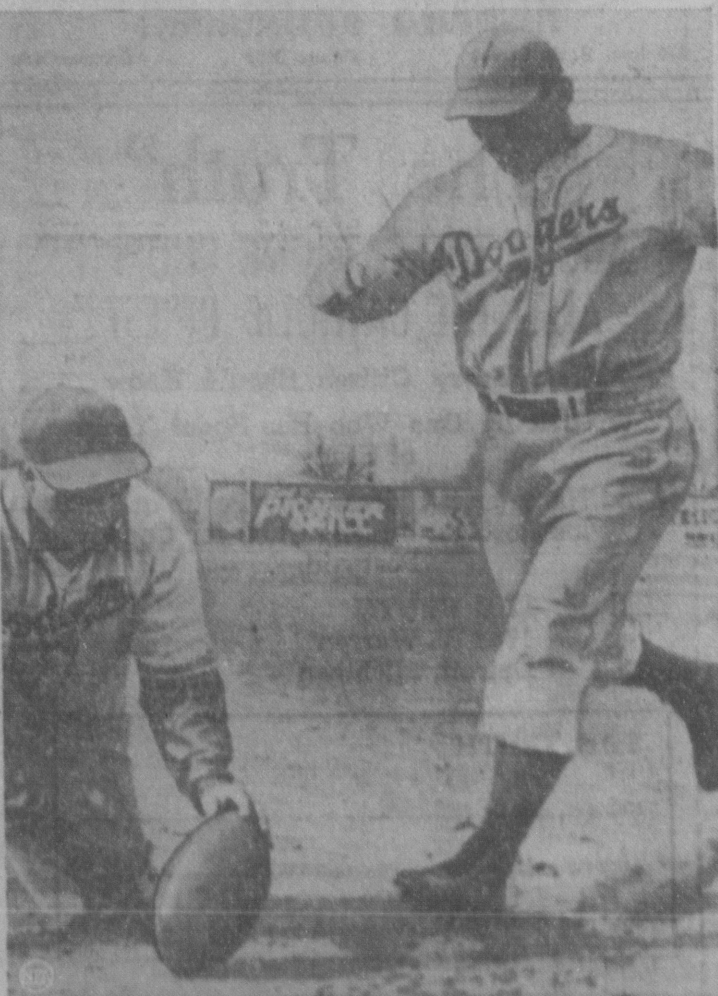

All of these angles—and many more—must be taken into consideration. Kelley has picked a trio well equipped with the softball tradition, knowledge and ability to arrange an improved league organization.

ODDS AND ENDS
The entry list in the touted Mansfield relays this weekend had swollen to 63 as of late yesterday. An energetic Mansfield Boosters club is handling most of the endless details of arranging the meet and have contributed, through a city-wide campaign, $2,500 to the operational costs of the meet.

Junior Legion Team Meeting Is Called

The junior baseball team will be organized at a meeting of Charles H. Carey post, American Legion, at 8 p. m. Monday in the home. The session is open to players or coaches interested in the team.

Giant Home Runs May Move Tribe's Fence

VEECK THINKING OF EXTENSION OR SWITCH IN FENCE

Tribe Trained 15-0 In Game Yesterday Before Scoring A Run

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, April 17.—The New York Giants stormed into Cleveland stadium today — and Indians' President Bill Veeck was thinking about adding a quick extension to his famed fence-within-a-fence.

Manager Lou Boudreau hailed his 1944 Indians as "the best club I have ever had," but he was not referring to the manner in which the Tribe took a 15-7 trouncing from the slugging New Yorkers in an exhibition tilt at Owensboro, Ky., yesterday.

Boudreau talked at length on the bright side of the wigwam picture as he declared: "We are improved over last year. Southpaw Gene Bearden and Bill Kennedy were two of the pleasant pitching surprises of the spring campaign."

"I believe they will help us a lot," he said, "and then, Joe Tipton, Alie Clark and Johnny Berardino will be in plenty of games."

Charley Wensloff, former New York Yankee right-hander purchased by the Tribe last week after he refused to report to the Philadelphia Phillies, arrived last night from his San Francisco home. Wensloff told Boudreau he was in fine condition.

Five of the Giants' "Murderers' Row" rapped home runs yesterday as they ran up a 15-0 lead and shelled Bob Muncie, Lyman Lunde and Les Webber from the mound in the first eight innings.

Sid Gordon capped the barrage with a grand slam clout in the fourth. Bobby Thomson, Walker Cooper, Whitey Lockman and former Indian Jack Conway also hit homers.

Joe Gordon did some face-saving for the Indians in the bottom half of the eighth with another grand slam round tripper, which climaxed a six-run inning.

Training Camp Briefs
NEW YORK—Big Alie Reynolds, the top winner on the New York Yankees' pitching staff last season, was named today as the World Champions' hurler on opening day Monday against the Senators at Washington.

The 30-year-old righthander, who is part Creek Indian, got the honored assignment from Manager Bucky Harris after he went three scoreless innings yesterday as the Yankees defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers, 8 to 6. Reynolds, from Oklahoma City, won 19 games and lost eight last season.

OWENSBORO, Ky.—The New York Giants, who swatted homers at a 1.4 per game pace during their record season last year, were socking 'em today at only a slightly slower pace of 1.2 per game during spring training.

Five Giants hit homers yesterday to route the Cleveland Indians, 15 to 6—Walker Cooper, Bobby Thomson, Jack Conway, Sid Gordon, and Whitey Lockman. Gordon's came with the bases loaded as did a round-tripper by Joe Gordon of the Indians. Gordon's eighth-inning wallop banished Giant Hurler Larry Jansen who had a shutout until then.

RICHMOND, Ind.—Catcher Ferrell Anderson, whom the Cincinnati Reds drafted from St. Paul last fall, was back with the Saints today. The Reds sold Anderson's contract back to the Brooklyn Dodgers farm and Anderson was sent to report to the Saints at Toledo last night. The burly catcher batted .365 for Fort Worth in the Texas league last year.

The Reds marked up their 16th victory in their last 18 games yesterday at the expense of their Syracuse farm club, 16 to 2. Cincinnati's home-a-game pace was maintained by Johnny Wyrostek with a blast over the right-field fence.

Sarazen, Hagen Feuding Again

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., April 17.—Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen were feuding on the golf links again today.

These two greats resumed their battles of years gone by as non-playing captains of five-man "sides" which squared off in an 18-hole two-ball match.

Today, they rode in jeeps. Each guided five of the nation's top-drawer professional aces around the par 69, Cavalier Country club layout in the feature of the $10,000 Cavalier specialists' tournament.

The match originated from an idea advanced by Byron Nelson, who was on Gene's team as a long iron specialist.

The team members, each regarded as one of the game's best in the only type of shot he will have to make today, were divided this way: Hagen's team: Jimmy Thomson, driver; Johnny Palmer, long iron; Jimmy Demaret, short iron; Lew Worsham, trouble shooter; Jim Ferrier; Putter; Lawson Little and Herman Kelsner, utility players.

Sarazen's team: Chick Harbert, driver; Nelson, long iron; Ed Furgol, short iron; Dick Metz, trouble shooter; Bobby Locke, putter; Chandler Harper and Bob Hamilton, utility.

Preliminaries today began at 10 ready-existing public fishing waters.

Regarding artificial stocking of fish in Ohio's lakes and streams, Conservation Commissioner H. A. Rider said today, "Investigations have disclosed the fact that artificial production and restocking has been a costly procedure and has not resulted in the return to fishermen that was anticipated. The policy of the Commission has now changed from widespread indiscriminate fish stocking to releases only in new waters and in those public fishing waters were corrective stocking is needed."

Hunting and Fishing Notes

Waterfowl Meeting Scheduled
The first of four nation-wide public waterfowl meetings to be held this spring has been scheduled for Columbus, April 26, in the State Office building.

This announcement is made by John Pearce, Regional Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

Long Range Program
The Ohio Conservation and Natural Resources commission at its April meeting has given Ohio's fish the same break recently handed the state's game situation by adopting a general long range program and policy regarding fish.

The program theoretically will do for the fish population the same thing that the game program and policy will do for the game in that the two principle objectives are to maintain already-existing good fish habitat and to provide, and wherever feasible to restore, productive natural habitat.

The program, which is already in operation, stresses the construction of new lakes as a means of restoring fish habitat (fishing and hunting areas) and the improvement of fishing conditions in all

Mansfield Relays Reach Payoff Time, Akron North Leads In Earliest Results

(By Associated Press)

MANSFIELD, April 17.—The 17th annual Mansfield relays got down to payoff time today with Akron North leading the field by two points.

North captured an early edge with a record-breaking win in the four-mile relay yesterday—the only final event of the first day. Dick Mains, Marvin Crostner, Jack Wagner and Don Chisam toured the four miles in 19:25.2 some 75 yards ahead of second-place Cleveland West Tech.

Third place went to Cleveland Collinwood. All three teams broke the record of 19:41.1 set in 1947 by Cleveland Cathedral Latin. West Tech's time was 19:36.5, Collinwood's 19:38.1.

Akron South and Cleveland Cathedral Latin took fourth and fifth.

Sixty-four schools sent 949 athletes to the current Mansfield Relays—not a record entry but one large enough to call for a number of preliminaries yesterday and more this morning.

Preliminaries today began at 10 ready-existing public fishing waters.

New Lincoln Cars To Be Displayed

An ultra-streamlined grille with headlights blending into the body contours is a distinguishing feature of the new Lincoln Continental models. This and other new Lincoln car models will be shown at the Matt Klein Motor Co. showrooms, W. State st., next Thursday. Similar Lincoln car showings will be held throughout the nation that day. Klein recently completed construction of his new garage at 483 W. State.

ROLL TERRIFIC DOUBLES SCORE

DETROIT, April 17.—Doubles competition in the American Bowling Congress tournament had new pacesetters today in James Towns and William Sweeney of Chicago.

They combined sizzling series yesterday to score a 1361 total, 23 points above the 1338 with which William Wilkas and Joe Romano of Amsterdam, N. Y., had led.

The Towns-Sweeney count was the ninth highest ever compiled in ABC tournament competition, and would have won the title in all but three previous tournaments.

Towns, 33-year-old Chicago airline employee and a non-league bowler, posted a 132 the highest series yet turned in for the current classic.

Goshen High Triumphs 5-4 In Baseball Battle

Staying off a rally in the sixth, Goshen High's baseball team racked up a 5-4 victory over Milton Friday at Goshen's field.

The victory was a thrilling one, the sixth being the last when Milton was leading. They had done the hurting prior to that for Goshen. Milton only needed four hits each pitcher allowing a pair.

Goshen scored on its hits and two Milton errors.

WALLACE

the home of a Communist and wrecked it in Columbus, Ohio, March 31.

"For several days prior to the mob action," said Baldwin, "The Columbus Citizen published pictures of the man's home together with his address and telephone number."

"On April 7, The Columbus Citizen turned over its entire letters to the editor column to writers who in his civilized day defended the mob action of the previous week.
One of the writers, apparently a member of the mob, wrote: 'I felt no shame. I don't need to add that the writer was not identified in the letter—although the paper went to such great pains to identify his victim.'

"The Columbus and Pittsburgh papers involved are members of the Scripps-Howard chain. I am sure that Mr. Howard and his editors will have defenders. But no honest man can ignore the fact that a 'responsible' newspaper chain has incited mob hysteria, creating the very conditions of intolerance and hatred which guarantee the destruction of liberties for which the press has traditionally held itself to be the defender."

President Truman was to give a personal report to the nation's top-flight newspaper editors.

Truman's address tonight will climax the three-day session of the American Society of Newspaper editors. A part of his talk was to be broadcast, the rest was to be off the record.

The newsmen also were to hear another closed door talk by Secretary of Defense Forrestal at a luncheon meeting.

New Philippine
President Speaks

(By Associated Press)
MANILA, April 17—The new president of the Philippine republic, Elpidio Quirino, told a university audience late today he is "living on borrowed time."

Quirino began his first day as chief executive by appearing briefly at the University of Manila to accept an honorary doctor of laws degree. Coincidentally, Filipinos went into 30 days of mourning for Manuel Roxas, their first president under independence who will be buried in state April 28.

Quirino's reference to his own poor health was prompted by the nature of Roxas' unexpected death Thursday — from a heart attack suffered at Clark field during an inspection of the U. S. air base.

THE THEATER

Lon McCallister and June Haver are the stars of the technicolor movie, "Scudda-Hoo! Scudda-Hay!"

Cadillac

ANCESTRY

The new Cadillacs you see today on the streets and highways of America have been more than forty-five years in the making. Back of them is a long line of fine, pioneering ancestors—every one of which has made a basic contribution to Cadillac's development. Without this long background of experience, today's Cadillac could not be built—for character in a motor car is like that in a human being—it is a long time in the making.

If you are waiting for a new Cadillac—please be assured that every effort is being made to further production. Demand is so great, however, that some delay in delivery is still inevitable. But hold to your purpose! There is no substitute for a Cadillac.
